

New Driver Agreement & Contract

I _____ do hereby agree to the terms of this contract. I know it is a privilege that I get to drive my own car / family vehicle, and if I violate this agreement, I will take the following consequences and not whine and beg to get out of the agreed penalty.

1. I will always inform you where I am driving, when I'm going and when I will return. If something comes up to make me late, I will call ASAP to let you know what is going on.

Consequence: _____

2. For the first ____ months of driving, I will not drive with friends or siblings in the car unless an adult is present. I will make sure everyone is buckled up before moving the car.

Consequence: _____

3. If I use more than _____ gallons of gas, I will replace the gas before I bring the car back home. I will clean out any mess made while I was driving before I come into the house.

Consequence: _____

4. I will drive the posted speed limit and practice safe driving all the time. If I do get any kind of ticket or have an accident with the car, I agree to pay for the damage done.

Consequence: _____

5. I will never eat, drink and drive. This includes alcohol, sodas, or other beverages. I will never have any liquor, beer or illegal drugs in the car at any time.

Consequence: _____

6. I won't talk on the cell phone while driving. If it rings, I will pull over at a safe place before answering the call. I understand it's OK if I miss the call.

Consequence: _____

I appreciate your trust and confidence in letting me drive.
